

THE COST OF COLLEGE

College costs include tuition, fees, books, living expenses and transportation. However, most students only pay about 60% of the advertised price of a 4-year college, once grant aid is included (and don't forget about scholarships!)

FINANCIAL AID 101

Financial aid is money to help pay for college. Most students receive some kind of financial aid to help pay for the cost of their education, including:

- SCHOLARSHIPS: Money for college given by businesses, organizations, or universities to students with good grades, athletic ability, community service or other unique qualities.
- GRANTS: Money for college from the federal and state government or the college that your student plans to attend that does not need to be repaid.
- LOANS: Money borrowed for college that must be paid back.
- WORK-STUDY: Part-time jobs, often on campus, that will pay your student for his/her work.

DID YOU KNOW?

Your student may be eligible for an Individual Development Account to help start saving for college. For every $1 your student saves, he or she will be matched with up to $5.

COLLEGE MYTHS (AND REALITIES)

MYTH: Saving for college will hurt my student's chances of getting financial aid.

REALITY: Any money you and your student are able to save probably won't appreciably affect chances for aid. Here's why: Under the federal financial aid formula, what matters most is the parents' income, which is assessed up to 47%. By contrast, a maximum of just 5.64% of savings will be counted, so parental savings typically have little impact in the government calculation of expected family contribution.
